United Way of Broome County Honors Longtime Volunteer

VESTAL, NY – United Way of Broome County recently recognized longtime volunteer Deb Andrako with a United Way Legacy Award.

The United Way Legacy Award honors individuals who have made significant contributions to the community through their time, actions, talents and dedication. Deb Andrako, Vice President and Commercial Banking Relationship Manager for NBT Bank, has served the United Way for more than 20 years. She is the first individual to receive the Legacy Award at United Way of Broome County.

“The Legacy Award provides an opportunity to say ‘thank you’ to Deb for her unwavering commitment to excellence. She has touched the lives of so many in Broome County and consistently demonstrated qualities of compassion and service. She has been an amazing partner, and her guidance and expertise have helped to transform the organization and contributed to immeasurable impact in Broome County; she is a true inspiration,” shared LoriAnne Welch, Executive Director of United Way of Broome County.

“Community service is an important core value here at NBT Bank, and we couldn’t be prouder of how Deb has exemplified this in her commitment to the United Way,” said NBT Bank Regional President Jeff Lake. “Deb’s friends here at NBT congratulate her on an amazing career-long record of community involvement and the receipt of this outstanding recognition.”

United Way of Broome County unites donors, volunteers and community organizations in a common mission to drive change that will have a positive impact on the critical needs of our community by strategically leveraging the collective resources of community partners. Our focus is on Basic Needs, Health, Education, and Financial Stability. These are the building blocks for a good life and the cornerstones of a strong community. By combining contributions from individuals and organizations, United Way generates a larger pool of dollars and expertise to tackle the issues that matter most, to help those who need it the most, in ways that achieve the greatest impact. Our work is personal enough to change lives and powerful enough to improve conditions across the community we serve. United Way invites people to come together, LIVE UNITED and create the change we want to see.
