Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service Unites Broome County

On Monday, January 15th, 2018, United Way of Broome County volunteers will be participating in the country's largest annual day of civic engagement: the national Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service. Volunteers will be completing hours of service at local charitable and not-for-profit organizations across Broome County. United Way volunteers and Binghamton University students will be among the thousands of Americans across the country who will be honoring Dr. King's legacy by dedicating the day to give back and make a difference in the community.
