United Way of Broome County's Annual Day of Caring Event

WHAT: In honor of United Way of Broome County's 100 Year Anniversary, Day of Caring has expanded to 2 days full of volunteer events with over 100 volunteer projects. Over 1,000 volunteers from area businesses and organizations are participating in more than 100 volunteer projects at local charitable and not-for-profit organizations across Broome County. The Day of Caring has been a local tradition since 2002 and was originally conceived as a remembrance to those who lost their lives during the terrorist attack on September 11, 2001, and to honor the many local heroes that evolved from the aftermath of that day.

WHO: Local business representatives non-profit agencies across Broome County United Way of Broome County
